I am a first year student

If you are an archaeology student or student instructor/counsellor, you can select a special membership.

DM offers double membership of DALF (the National Association of Danish Archaeology Students) and SUL (the National Association of Student Instructors).

Find out more at www.dm.dk/studerende.

Magazines and newsletters are provided as part of your membership privileges.

They contain advice and news from DM, exclusive offers for members, and discounts from our business partners.

You can unsubscribe from these publications at all times.
